Like the bookstore? Why? Lead to staff. Suggest class letter to staff person.

Names in the books? Why?

I stamp my name in all my books. Why? It tells me that the book is mine.

We're all book owners now. What's so wonderful about book ownership? 1) the book is right there for re-reading; 2) lending to friends and 3) writing thoughts and feelings in the margin.

Have you finished any of your books? Turn over to the teacher for sharing or other activity.

After that's finished ask for favor—each child writing letter to a second grader.

Last plug for the importance of reading.
